

Mahita Ramgolam

Front-end Developer

As a self-motivated and driven Frontend Developer, I have almost 2 years of experience building and maintaining responsive, user-friendly websites using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, React.js, and Next.js. I have hands-on experience implementing new features, optimizing performance, and collaborating in Agile teams to deliver scalable web applications. I am continuously learning and passionate about creating interactive, modern interfaces with clean and maintainable code. I'm looking for opportunities to grow as a React/Next.js developer, expand my expertise in modern frontend frameworks, and contribute to innovative projects.
